Trainer Tails

I was riding my trainer the other night, accompanied only by the television and my 13 year-old yellow lab, Maui. Darkness and rain have limited my rides this early in the spring, so my ride consisted of relatively easy steady effort. However, I noticed that after about 50 minutes the resistance began to increase a bit. I thought this was odd; the resistance in my fluid trainer usually increases a bit a few minutes into a "ride" but then steadies. Shrugging it off, I attributed my perception to general lack of fitness. I continued to watch the TV. A few more minutes passed and I noticed a slight "burning" odor. Further sniffing confirmed this. I looked back at my trainer flywheel and quickly stopped pedaling. Old Maui had earlier chosen to lie down on the mat under my trainer and behind my bike. She ended up lightly touching the trainer flywheel, enough to cause slight resistance and singe a 4" curl of hair across her back above her tail! As I slid her away from the bike she woke up, now sporting a curling cowlick on her back but otherwise oblivious to the whole occurrence.

Training Wheels

At the time of this writing, 10-year old Ben has more miles on his bike for the year than I do on mine. I have a few more hours in the saddle, thanks to the windtrainer in the cellar, but he's ahead on the miles and as Mike Habich has pointed out, "It's the miles that count".

He is just learning now that a bike can be a form of transportation as well as a fitness tool (or instrument of torture, depending on your point of view). He has a couple of friends in the neighborhood that have also discovered this fact. Recently, we allowed him to ride away without either of us for the first time.

Thirty some years ago, I achieved this myself at a younger age. By the time I was finishing 5th grade, I had been riding my bike to school for 2 years. Either my parents were braver than I am or perhaps it was the different (ignorant?) times that made this possible. Last year I could never have conceived of allowing Ben to ride out of my sight on the public roads, and I still find it very, very difficult. I'd rather go out and ride the White Mountain Century again today by myself (with no miles in my legs) than wave goodbye as he rides off, if I had the choice.

I've always known that if Ben discovered he likes to ride, we would have several days of equivalent ability as he progresses into his teens and I advance through my forties. I've probably got a few years of slowing for him before those days occur, and then I'll be left behind for the buzzards.

Riding with the likes of Peter Bazely, Tim Dixon, and a few others has given me some hope. These guys are beyond their forties, and have the capability to crush many studly 20-something cycling units at will. Maybe I'll be able to hang onto Ben for a week or so.

The club has started to wake up for the spring. Road rides will be starting this month (weather permitting) and many clubs and organizations including the NSC are announcing dates selected in organizing meetings thru the winter. We have the Essex County Heritage ride June 2, Emmaus on July 21, a joint ride with CRW August 11, and the Blazing Saddles Century August 24 and 25 among other events to look forward to.

See you on the road!

Di and Scott's Touring Series

Looking for some biking adventure on Saturdays and some Sundays? Why not join us as we travel to great, one day (and maybe longer sometimes), biking tours outside of the North Shore area. All tours are well documented by books, maps or other bike clubs and have reached a "favorite" status by many who have ridden them. Tours will range from 35 to 75 miles; from easy as in 'real flat' to hilly as in 'not another mountain'. Some starts will take us 30 minutes by car to travel to, others maybe 2 hours. But we will always start and finish at the same location. If you enjoy touring, please e-mail us at ssirota@netway.com to get on our mailing list.

We expect to kick-off the touring series April 13, 2002 –weather permitting, of course, and hope to tour at least twice per month throughout the season. Get on our mailing list and we will share dates and ride details with you.

-Scott Sirota

Your Time is at Hand...

For those of you who have not renewed. The NSC Membership Police will be watching. With his, oops, I mean, with the sophisticated video technology that they employ, you will not escape detection! So forget the hassle and renew today! (or else)!

Now the serious news. The roads suck! Sand, glass, potholes, you name it, it's there. Call your local DPW and get them out on your favorite route before you break your bike or something more important... like you.

For all my friends in the five (5) communities of Reading, North Reading, Lynnfield, Wilmington and Wakefield, the North Suburban Bicycle Plan is coming to the forefront. Nathan Atwater of Weston and Sampson Engineers, Inc. is gathering information from interested people from those communities who wish to be involved in the planning of this project. You can contact Nathan at 978.977.0110, ext. 7458 and atwater@wseinc.com. Our Wakefield members can contact me, as I am attempting to form a committee of interested parties to help plan this project in Wakefield (Emmett Halpin, 781.246.5268 and emmetthalpin@attbi.com). For those NSC'ers in the other four communities, may I suggest you contact the Town Planners of your town. For North Reading that person is Bob Rodgers who is also the chairman of the committee that is made up of representatives from the five communities. He can be reached at 978.664.6050 and brodgers@ttlc.net. For Reading, Ann Krieg is the contact at 781.942.9012 and akrieg@ci.reading.ma.us. Wilmington's town planner is Lynn Duncan at 978.658.8238 and LDuncan@town.wilmington.ma.us. I have no contact for Lynnfield. Wakefield's town planner is Paul Reavis. He can be reached at 781.246.6397 and preavis@wakefield.ma.us.

Ride safely,

Emmaus Ride July 21

July 21 has been announced as the 2002 date for the Emmaus House fund-raising ride Cycle for Shelter (formerly Heels & Wheels Century). The ride benefits Emmaus Inc., the provider of shelter & services for the homeless in Haverhill. Cycle for Shelter is a significant charity event that supports one of the largest and most comprehensive nonprofit organizations in northeastern Massachusetts.

Emmaus is committed to keeping administrative overhead costs to the barest minimum. At least 90% of all money raised will go directly to the people who need it most homeless women, men, and children. Last year, about $22000 was raised for the shelter, making this event Emmaus's largest fund raiser! It's a landmark event on the calendar of many NSC riders.

This event is a grass roots effort put together by NSC members along with a few others. What we really need to make this ride a success is participation! Please help us to get the word out by telling your friends! For more information, or if you are interested in helping as a volunteer, contact Bob Makowiecki, 978-352-2407 (robert.makowiecki@vsea.com.) More details will appear in future newsletters.

Download Your Newsletter

Get it earlier, make less stapling and mailing for your friends, and print out as many copies as you want. From time to time there may be extra content in it as well. Let Emmett know you are downloading, then subscribe to the E-mail list. A notice goes out when it's ready and you can download it any time.

NSC Clothing

We ordered a small inventory to come with the pre-ordered clothing. To get outfitted, you can contact Eric Shaktman for availability and to get an order form. The order form is also available on the NSC web site (<http://www.astseals.com/nsc>). When the new clothing comes in, we will place it in shops also as in the past. Details will be available. You will pay no more buying NSC clothing from the shops and may find it more convenient. As a reminder, when paying individuals for clothing or membership, checks should be made out to "North Shore Cyclists" and not the individuals. When buying clothing at the shops you pay the shop.

Diabetes: The Silent Killer

Nearly 16 million Americans have diabetes, or about one of every 20 people in America. Adults, teens, seniors and children: diabetes can affect anyone at any age. It is projected that 180,000 people will die this year because of diabetes, more than from AIDS, breast cancer, or many other life-threatening diseases. The sixth leading cause of death by disease, diabetes has no known cure. Often the disease is not detected until it causes other health complications such as blindness, kidney and heart disease, strokes, and amputations. For more information on diabetes, contact your physician or your local ADA.

The new NSC jersey, in living color...

Actually, a note about colors. Colors on any computer monitor and from any color inkjet printer are an approximation at best. Colors vary quite noticeably from monitor to monitor and printer to printer. The only way to know the exact colors is to see the fabric samples.

Thanks to all members who pre-ordered the clothing at the Spring Meeting and through the mail. We did order a small inventory in excess of the pre-orders, so it's not too late to sign up for a sharp new jersey. Order form is included among these pages. Contact Eric for availability.
