PUT YOUR HEART INTO IT!

Definition of insanity: doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results. Do you do the same training regime daily and expect to improve? Do you cycle indoors during the winter or during inclement times? What do you do to stay motivated? I would like to suggest a way that you can continue to stay motivated and increase your performance during the cycling season.

The heart rate monitor provides an effective and accurate method to obtain instant biofeedback about physiological, mental, and metabolic responses in your body. This is similar to your bike odometer but it provides important information about your heart and its response to the demands of exercise. In contrast to the heart rate monitor, the bike odometer measures speed only, which is affected by at least one of the following: tires, terrain, environmental factors such as wind and temperature, and group dynamics such as drafting. So as you can see, if you want to see how you are really doing, a heart rate monitor provides a much better picture. Also, by comparing your resting heart rate over time, you can see how much stress you are under and if you are recovered enough to workout hard, take it easy or rest. This tech gadget can be your own personal trainer especially when it alerts you to increase or decrease your intensity level.

There are a variety of monitors with different features. Which one should one choose? I like to think of this motivational tool as a lifelong companion. Why would anyone want anything less than the best?! Therefore my BEST recommendation is the Polar Pro Trainer NV. This monitor allows you to program the zone in which you would like to train, keeps the time of your heart rate above, within and below your zone and shows your average heart rate. This will keep you motivated! It beeps when are under your programmed zone or above your programmed zone. Through effective programming with the assistance of a knowledgeable trainer or exercise physiologist, your effective heart rate range and maximal heart rate can be determined. A simple, yet conservative estimate for a person's maximal heart rate is 220 minus your age. This formula doesn't work for everyone and therefore if it doesn't make sense for you, feel free to contact me or another exercise professional. After you find your maximal heart rate, you can then train in different "zones" or percentages of maximal heart rate.

Now for the motivational and increased performance part: with different zones, you can improve strength or endurance, depending on what you would like to achieve. You can challenge yourself in different ways to achieve your goals. Strength endurance training is achieved by increasing the resistance to a feeling of a hill climb and keeping the heart rate steady or slightly increasing (75-85% of max heart rate). Endurance training or steady state exercise is similar to a flat road with

BLAZING SADDLES CENTURY UPDATE

This is the next to the last time I am going to say this for the year, WHERE ARE THE VOLUNTEERS FOR THE CENTURY? As always there are a dozen or so members who have already volunteered a month ago, but it takes more than that.

I need to get an arrow marking crew together, preferably two persons to each section, which makes the job easier. There are also positions for the 50 mile rest stop for both days. I would also like to have six people for each morning of registration and someone for check in. And we'll need help for the cleanup.

Don't hesitate, give either Bob (978-887-3855), or me, Tony, (978-352-2524) a call. Or E-mail litespd1@aol.com. The more the merrier.

See you on the roads,

EMMAUS BENEFIT RIDE

Once again, North Shore Cyclists will be reaching out to help the less fortunate members of our local community by supporting Emmaus Inc. of Haverhill. Work is underway for our annual cycling & walking benefit event, Heels 'n Wheels for the Homeless, scheduled for July 22, 2001.

Emmaus, Inc. is devoted to serving the needs of homeless women, men, and children in the greater Merrimack Valley and North Shore. Founded in 1985, seven programs provide meals, emergency shelter, transitional housing, job training, housing search, homeless prevention, and support services throughout our communities. The Heels 'n Wheels event plays a critical role in the efforts to raise needed funds to support Emmaus programs, and also serves to increase the volunteer team: people who bring a variety of skills and contribute many hours of dedicated service to Emmaus, stretching budgetary dollars.

This year's event will be held at Northern Essex Community College in Haverhill. Along with ride lengths of 25, 62 and 100 miles, there will also be a 5 mile walk around Kenoza Lake. The walk and 25 mile ride start at 1:30 PM. The 62 mile ride will depart at 11:00 AM, and the 100 mile ride at 7:00 AM. Please, only riders 18 years and older for the some resistance (65-75% max heart rate). During either of these trainings, you can vary your heart rate and challenge yourself. A great challenge is interval training. This will give you increased performance! As with the other types of rides, you must warm up for about 5 minutes at a low heart rate increasing it gradually to 65% max heart rate, then work hard for a period of time (from about 1 to 3 minutes) at 80-90% max heart rate, then recover between intervals at 65% max heart rate. If you find that your heart rate does not return to recovery after a number of intervals, then you should not continue doing intervals since you have received all the benefits of the training and

SIGN THE FORM

Elsewhere in this issue is a membership report in which Emmett explains he has purged our expired members. At the risk of sounding like the Channel 2 Auction, I ask that members whose memberships have expired yet are still reading the newsletter from the internet renew ASAP. Club membership absolves you from filling out waiver forms at the rides, saves you 10% at many bike shops and entitles you to a say in the plans of the club. You cannot help vote me in or vote me out unless you are a club member! Membership money funds postride snacks and cookouts, as well as the paint, copying, and postage necessary for the Sunday rides and this newsletter. Membership money also provides starter funds for the century, the banquet, NSC clothing, and other special events. Support your club and help yourself by starting or renewing your membership. It costs less than most bike tires do.

Tony needs help! The Century needs volunteers. Remember, Tony gets a case of Rolling Rock from me if he improves on last year. He can slake his thirst with your help. See his article on Page 1. And Eric can always use Sunday ride leaders. Call Eric Shaktman at 603-580-1010

Two projects I have on the burners: sometime this summer we will be setting up an area on the NSC web site with corporate information. The club bylaws will be there, meeting notices and agendas, and similar information. Also, we may be looking for a few people for a photo shoot for media and brochure purposes this summer. Keep an eye on the e-mail list or contact me if you might want to be included but aren't on the list.

-Ed Bolton, President, NSC

THANKS

A quick note to thank the members/volunteers at the Essex County Heritage Ride on June 3. Eric Shaktman: provided the route, registration and the Cranes's stop. Lenny Sullivan: registration and the Crane's Stop. Tony Salerno: setup, registration, and advice. Mike McAndrews: registration. Paulette Frasier: registration. Pam Houck: registration. Marie Doyle: registration. Emmett Halpin: 15 mile leader. Peter Bazely: Arrows.. Especially Jim Trudeau, who originated and headed up the event. And all members who turned out on a wet day to ride. From outside the club, Annie Harris and Ann Barton from ENHA, who did tremendous amounts of both planning and legwork. We had poor weather but a good start. Let's get some sun for next year.

100 mile ride.

We request a minimum goal of $100.00 in pledges for individuals and an average of $100.00 in pledges per person for groups, families, or crews (registration fee counts towards your goal!). That is only asking for $10 from 10 friends, neighbors or coworkers.

Participants will receive:

- Water bottles
- Refreshments, route maps and roadside assistance
- Free food & beverage vouchers
- T-shirt for those collecting $150 or more in pledges
- Special prizes/gift certificates for top pledge collectors.

In conjunction with the bike/walk event, we will have our famous cookout, plenty of soft drinks and live music, making this the perfect atmosphere to unwind after the event! Entertainment this year will be provided by bands Averi, Smoke Poetic, Mars Black and Fat City. It's a great mix of music!

Last year's event raised more than $29,600. By holding steadfast to its commitment of keeping administrative overhead costs to the barest minimum, approximately 90% of all monies received went directly to the people who need it most: homeless women, men, and children. In order to make this event a success we need your help and participation. We had over a hundred participants last year and we'd love to double that this year! Please mark July 22 on your ride calendar. For more information or registration forms, call Bob Makowiecki at 978-352-2407 or visit the Emmaus website: <http://www.emmausinc.org/heels.htm>

THE MONSTER CHALLENGE: TRI BOSTON

There is a brand new event coming to Boston over Labor Day weekend. The Monster Challenge: Tri Boston is a collaboration between the AIDS Action committee and Dave McGillivray, Race Director of the Boston Marathon. We are delighted to bring this new event to Boston and hope you will participate in our inaugural event!

Tri Boston will be staged in downtown Boston and athletes can compete at Olympic or Sprint distances. Never run a triathlon before? That's ok - team up with some friends and compete as a relay team. The Sprint distance is 0.5 mile swim in Boston Harbor, a 12.4 mile Bike leg from Downtown Boston to Cambridge and back, and a 3.1 mile run in the Marine Industrial Park in South Boston. The Olympic distances are twice the Sprint Distances. To participate in the Olympic Distance event, you must have completed an Olympic distance triathlon in under 2.5 hours. The race will take place on Sunday Sept. 2.

Check out our website to request more information - <http://monsterchallenge.org>. You can register online through the website as well. Interested athletes are also welcome to contact us at monsterchallenge@aac.org or call 617-450-1100.

DEAR FRIENDS

June 30-- July 1 of this year, I will again be cycling for the Multiple Sclerosis Society in the Great Mass Getaway Tour. The ride begins from the World Trade Center in Boston, then after 2 days and a total of 160 miles, ends in Provincetown.

I'm excited about once again meeting the challenge and ask that you join me in accomplishing my goal to raise $1,200 for the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Multiple Sclerosis is a chronic, often disabling disease, randomly attacking the nervous system. The progress, severity and specific symptoms of this disease are unpredictable; symptoms may range from tingling and numbness to paralysis and blindness.....Just imagine how it would be to not be able to do the most simple things in life, such as smiling, brushing your teeth, tying your shoes and walking, all because you have lost the capacity to do so.

The Multiple Sclerosis Society is dedicated to ending the debilitating effects of Multiple Sclerosis. I myself have a good friend, an Aunt, and an MS team member who suffer from this disease, therefore I personally dedicate this annual ride to them.

You can help! Please help me to achieve my goal by making a donation today. Donations can be mailed to me at 591 Salem Street, Wakefield, MA 01880, or given directly to me. Cash is welcome. However, if you would like to donate by check, please make it payable to: The Multiple Sclerosis Society.

I thank you for your support and promise you I will complete this 160 mile journey to help fight Multiple Sclerosis. Best Wishes,

-Janet Nestor
