There is More than One Reason to Ride These Things

Smelling the Roses

"Faster! Stronger! Longer!" shouts the cover of my monthly bike magazine. "Build legs of steel, the endurance of Lance, beat your buddies to the top of every climb!" I get tired just reading the headlines! These stories may be appealing to the young and invincible among us, but to a 25 pound over-weight who passed the half-century mark a few years ago, just the mere thought of so much effort wears me out!

Gone are the days when I couldn't bear to let anyone ride away from me out of the pack. Only memories are the times I gritted my teeth and dug deep inside to lead the paceline into a headwind longer than anyone else. No longer do I spring from my saddle onto pedals and challenge the biggest hills, exulting in victory at the top as I quickly recover to forge ahead. Now it's more of a panting-at-the-pinnacle struggle as I crest the summit and pray for a long downhill on the other side.

While my salad days as a young bronco on a bike may be past, I have discovered new and enjoyable experiences that don't require being the fastest or strongest rider in town. At club rides I hang back and let the fast and furious blast off into orbit well before me; I am impressed by the sheer speed these guys and gals are able to maintain. Did I used to do that? I've tried in vain to hang on as caboose to one of their trains and been blown completely to smithereens. So now I start out with the less aggressive riders and see where it leads me.

NSC rides up my way (Newburyport/Amesbury/Southern NH area) tend to be varied in terrain and landscape. What I am able to drink in visually are beautiful seashores, green pastures and wooded forests with shafts of golden sunlight raining down through the canopy. My sole view of a 50 mile ride when I was a young buck was the rear wheel of the rider in line ahead of me; I couldn't have told you of a single landmark along the route or whether the sky was cloudy or gray.

Personally, I believe the secret to keep on enjoying bike riding as I age is to roll easy and steadily, with less stress on speed and competition; there's nothing bad with riding a slower pace. I savor the views around me, enjoy a few well deserved breaks, and simply take pleasure in riding with other enthusiasts delighting in the pursuit of a lifelong passion; being on our bikes. I also manage to put in a pretty good ride time, for an old guy that is.

Workout to Work

Last fall I signed up with a program called "Workout to Work" administered by the ABC TMA (Artery Business Committee Transportation Management Association). They send you a ride diary/calendar to help you keep track of your miles. At the end of the month you log in and register your miles to be entered in monthly prize drawings. For the first 5 months they have sent me incentives (tire pressure gauge, blinkie light, Boston bike map etc.) Nothing you really need but better than the bills one usually gets in the mail.

To sign up for the program, visit http://www.abctma.com/services\_workout.htm and complete the online registration form.

(Pete recently won one of the monthly drawings for two tickets to Cape Cod. Yet another plus for bike commuting!)

Update on the North Suburban Regional Bicycle Transportation Plan (NSRBTP)

The NSRBTP, which includes the towns of Wakefield, Lynnfield, N. Reading, Reading and Wilmington, has received a "draft" proposal of the routes planned for the five towns by the engineering firm of Weston & Sampson (W&S).

As an active member of the Wakefield Bicycling Committee, I can say that our town has been pro-active concerning bicycling issues. The RR-ROW (RailRoad Right-Of-Way) that runs from the junction at North Avenue through to the Lynnfield Town Line at Reedy Meadow is going to be abandoned by Guilford Corporation. Our committee has asked the Wakefield Board of Selectmen to show an expression of interest to the MBTA, which owns the property. If all goes as we wish, the MBTA will offer a 99-year, no cost lease to the town for the use of that RR-ROW. It would be beneficial if the Lynnfield Board of Selectmen showed an expression of interest in this property, as their portion is also abandoned and connects to the Peabody Town Line.

The Town Planner of North Reading, Bob Rodgers, is the chairman of the committee that oversees this project. He can be reached at the North Reading Town Hall, 978-664-6050, or nrplanning@northreadingmass.com. He can provide updates on the project and contact information for those of you who live in the other towns.

The goal of this project is to make bicycling safe for those of us who ride. Help us do that.

Ride safely,
-Emmett

Portland, Maine to Quebec City August 29 - September 8, 2003

Join us for the 11th (almost) annual sag van supported tour through northern New England to French, cosmopolitan, delightful Quebec City. This will be the first year starting from Portland. Cycle "coast to coast" from the Atlantic to the port of Quebec on the Saint Lawrence River. Starting on August 30, we will cover approximately 50-70 miles per day for six days, with one layover day. Enroute, we will experience scenic western Maine, the White Mountains and remote Connecticut Lakes in New Hampshire, and the upper Appalachians of Quebec. We will enter Canada with a spectacular downhill at the highest border crossing east of the Rockies. There are lots of hills, but also plenty of rolling and flat roads. Monday September 1 is a layover day at a favorite lakefront lodge to hike, swim, kayak, bike (mountain bike rentals are available), look for moose, or visit the historic Balsams Hotel in Dixville Notch. We'll arrive in Quebec City on Friday September 5 in the afternoon and leave Monday morning September 8, giving us time to play tourist and enjoy the city's great restaurants, plus opportunities for hiking and more cycling. Optional pre-tour coastal cycling in Portland, Maine on Friday, August 29.

Tour fee of $925 includes 10 nights lodging in comfortable inns, hotels and motels, with 2 persons/room. Also lunch food on 7 days, 35 breakfasts, 2-4 dinners, sag van support, return transportation to Portland by chartered bus or van/truck combination (depending on group size), 10 days off-street parking, trip T-shirt, and maps and cue sheets.

Sponsoring club: Charles River Wheelmen. Leader: Arnold Nadler, 978-745-9591, ardnadler@aol.com. Co-leader, Jenny Robbins, 781-893-0840.

Membership News

"The membership cop is watching."

Hey kids, if you do not get this message, then you are not a member. Sound confusing? Do not worry, we will not shun you, but we will ask you to sign a waiver at each NSC ride you attend. How will we know? The "membership cop" is going to provide each ride leader with a membership list. So, if you do not get this message, you are not a member in good standing with the NSC. Have fun, ride safely.

Cycle for Shelter Sunday July 20, 2003

It's hard to believe but the long, harsh winter is finally over. Now it's time to think about dusting off your bicycle and hitting the road! Cycle for Shelter is scheduled for Sunday, July 20, 2003 at Northern Essex Community College. We're giving you plenty of advance notice to add this great event to your busy summer calendar!

We need your help! Emmaus Inc. helped over 1,500 different homeless women, men, and children find the road home in 2002. Emmaus is a wonderful organization that has been passionately committed since 1985 to creating solutions for homeless families and individuals. Over the past two decades, we have established ten housing and service programs designed to rebuild lives.

Times are tough. The number of homeless adults and children keeps escalating. Emmaus remains fiercely committed to helping all those who need us so desperately. However, available public resources are dwindling before our eyes. In July 2002, Mitch's Place (emergency shelter for adults) suffered a 15% cut in state funding. The Emmaus Family House endured a 10% cut. We are now bracing ourselves for further state cuts in July 2003.

Cycle for Shelter is your chance to make a difference in your own backyard! We're asking you to ride this year and recruit at least one new cyclist to join you! You'll receive a special gift if you bring along a friend! It's so easy to register. You can sign up on-line (www.emmausinc.org) or pre-register at the Cycle Kick-Off Event at Two for the Road (cycle shop) located on Route 133 in Georgetown, MA on Saturday, June 7th from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. Join us at Two for the Road on June 7th to pick up your event shirt and receive a 10% discount on all parts and accessories!

Thank you for your support! You can trust that Emmaus will use your money wisely. Well above the national average, 88 cents of every dollar raised at Emmaus goes directly to life-saving programs for the homeless.

If you decide not to ride but wish to sponsor a cyclist, or for more information, please call Gretchen at (978) 241-3411 or Bob Makowiecki at 978-352-2407.

- Bob Makowiecki

There are Others

While channel surfing the TV a few weeks ago, I discovered a sport that shares some of the positives of bicycle racing and has a few advantages.

I stumbled onto lawnmower racing. I admit I had to check the channel after watching it for a few seconds. I thought I had landed on Comedy Central, but lawnmower racing seems to be an actual sport with a governing body (<http://www.letsnow.com/>), sanctioned events, and corporate sponsors. I had just enough interest (and lubricating beverage) to watch for a few minutes.

The races I saw were run on NASCAR tracks. In the "stock" classes, the lawnmowers were real Murray, Snapper, and Sears riding lawn tractors with the mower decks still attached. They had sponsor stickers all over them, like a race car or a pro-cyclist's jersey. It took them about 5 minutes to go around the track.

The modified classes were faster. There were a few crashes. In one unsanctioned race they showed, a competitor high-fived another at the conclusion of the race. He had a chain-drive mower, and when he dropped his hands after the gesture one of them ended up in the drive and he lost two fingers. They showed paramedics searching the track for the missing fingers while the med-flite chopper was waiting to take off. The announcers mentioned that is why exposed chains are not allowed in sanctioned events.

An excellent lawn tractor can be had for the price of a well equipped Litespeed, which is significantly less than a race-ready car of any type. If you get into this sport, you won't need to be grinding out training miles in the rain and cold. The usual post-race recovery drink is available from any local packie. Best of all, you will be on TV on a network available through my cable provider. I can't say that about bike racing.
